PLANT LOG

Name: California Wonder Sweet Pepper

Scientific Name: Capsicum annuum

Type: ☑ Annual ☐ Perennial

Location: ☑ Sunlight ☐ Part Shade ☐ Shade

Soil Type: well-drained, fertile sandy loam soil

pH: slightly acidic pH of 6.2 to 7.0

Seed Depth: ¼ inch Seed Spacing: 1 inch

Row Spacing: 2-2½ ft Final Spacing: 15-20 inches

Growth Height: 18-24 inches

Fertilization: 5-10-10 fertilizer every 6-8 weeks

Watering Schedule: 1-2”/week Approx. 0.6-1.2 gal/square foot

Pest & Weed Control: Tobacco mosaic-resistant. Watch for spider mites and aphids

Germination Date:

Days to Germinate: 10-12

Days Until Harvest: 85

Bloom Season: Typically bloom in late spring to early summer

Transplant/Repot Date:

Allergies/Toxins: No significant allergens or toxins.

Supplier:

Cost:

Notes: California Wonder is one of the best large bell peppers. The crisp, thick flesh has a mild, pleasant flavor. Perfect for salads, stuffing, and as a soup ingredient. It’s high in vitamins A and C.
Sow seeds indoors 6 to 8 weeks before last frost.
Fruits can be picked green or allowed to ripen to the sweeter red stage.
Heirloom variety. Ideally save seeds from ripe peppers.